

FAQ's

Where can I find jobs in Queensland Health?

Queensland Health has a dedicated website where all advertised positions and where you can submit an Expression of Interest. The website is

<http://www.health.qld.gov.au/nursing/default.asp>

For specific information on Hospital vacancies and service information please go to http://www.health.qld.gov.au/workforus/profiles/QH_region.asp

What course do I need to undertake to become an Enrolled Nurse/Registered Nurse/Midwife?

For information on how to become an EN, please go to <http://www.thinknursing.com/nursing-midwifery/starting-out/enrolled-nurse>

For information on how to become an RN, please go to <http://www.thinknursing.com/nursing-midwifery/starting-out/registered-nurse>

For information on how to become an Endorsed Midwife, please go to <http://www.thinknursing.com/nursing-midwifery/starting-out/endorsed-midwife>

For more information around the courses and how to apply, please go to QTAC

<http://www.qtac.edu.au/index.html>

How can I get financial assistance to support myself through University/TAFE?

For information on scholarships available please go to <http://www.thinknursing.com/education-training/cadetships-scholarships/student>

Queensland Nursing Council (QNC) offers undergraduate scholarships. Please access the following link for further information <http://www.qnc.qld.gov.au/home/index.aspx> or alternatively by phoning 1300 139 993 between the hours of 8.30am to 4.30pm Monday to Friday.

Individual universities and TAFE also offer scholarships for undergraduate students. For more information on university scholarships the universities should be contacted directly.

Will my overseas qualification transfer into Queensland system?

To find out about registration and qualification in Queensland, you need to contact the Queensland Nursing Council (QNC) on 1300 139 993 or via their website

www.qnc.qld.gov.au